WASHINGTON, ALEXANDRIA WASHINGTON, ALEXANDRIA
AND GEORGETOWN STEAM PACKET COMPANY.— NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The favorite steamer COLUMBIA, Capt. James Harper, has recently been put in complete order, having had added to her former accommodations a spacious saloon and fourteen comfortable staterooms, with entire new bedding and other furniture, and will until the 22d September next, leave Baltimore EVFRY SATURDAY AFTERNOON, at six instead of four o'clock-thus affording passengers and shippers-two hours more in Baltimore, and arriving at Point Lookout and Kinsale at more convenient hours in the morning. Returning, the Columbia will leave Riley's wharf, Washington, EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, at six, and Alexandria at seven o'clock, calling at all the usual stopping places, going and returning, to land and receive passengers and freight. All goods received after five o'clock on Saturday, will be stored in the Company's warehouse, at the risk of the shippers, and forwarded by the DIAMOND STATE, the following WEDNESDAY, unless convenient for the agent to send them after that hour, in which event he is instructed to do so, although it is desirable they should be delivered as early in the day as practicable, and all way freight should be sent before four o'clock.

Since the COLUMBIA has been enlarged, it tarely happens that she cannot take considerable siditions to her usual freight. Shippers therefore having large lots of guano, pig iron, and otherfreight, can have them carried by special agreement, on terms mutually advantageous, on applitation to the following agents.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the chosen by the insured and the Company.

[COMMUNICATED. IDOL HOPES. by George Rawlinson, M. A., one volume, 12mo., "Look, look, a mouse! A piece of toasted cheese will do it"-King Leah. Last night, we put away Tennyson's new poem "Sea Dreams—An Idyl." This morning, we would take it forth-when lo! some marsuding Mrs. Rat, seeking columns, prehapse for her little domicile; or, her more literary spouse, may be; essaying the digestibility of poesy-had between them, reduced the poet's ideas to fragments. 'Tis little you ken, ye sleek pawky rogue, That this nibbling and havec of thine, Are "paying devoirs" to fortune's last vogue

That cost fifty dollars a line!

Was it smell of the mint, suggested the hint? Like to "small deer" editorial gents, Who litter their nests, with the poor poet's best, Mar the reading, nor give him the cents. Or, like the "reviews" of some critics, we know Who darkly go prowling about,

Chew us up, and then-spew us out! Or was it Old Time-despising such lore, Antedated his work with thy tooth, To teach to friend Tennyson, and a few more, This unsavory, this most cutting truth.

Who make us the "quid" without the "pro quo"

That the hopes which we set idel-like on our rhymes, And which picture us half deified, Which cost us such trouble, bring us dimes upon Alas! may be thus ratified? TARPLEY STARR.
